

AMERICAN ACADEMY OF MATRIMONIAL LAWYERS OHIO CHAPTER

INTRODUCTION

The American Academy of Matrimonial Lawyers Ohio Chapter was chartered in 1990 for charitable and educational purposes. The Ohio Chapter has a history of supporting charitable organizations that advance one of the AAML's most important goals — the protection of children and families. The Ohio Chapter solicits proposals for programs or activities which promote these goals and awards grants to those organizations which the Ohio Chapter deems most meritorious.

GRANT POLICY STATEMENT

The Ohio Chapter of the American Academy of Matrimonial Lawyers considers grant applications for proposals designed to:

1. Provide financial assistance to organizations by way of grants to help protect families, parents and children adversely affected by the breakup of the family unit;
2. Support projects pertaining to children in custody disputes, dependency cases, and similar situations;
3. Support programs in schools, courts, and organizations to help children cope with the breakup of families;
4. Teach mothers, fathers, and parental caregivers how to parent and co-parent effectively;
5. Provide counseling to children of families experiencing domestic violence, drug and alcohol abuse, and mental illness;
6. Promote relationship enrichment programs to help prevent the breakup of families;
7. Promote pro bono and low-cost family law legal representation and ancillary mental health services for both indigent clients and their children, who are adversely affected by the breakup of the family unit; and
8. Promote innovation, research, and education in support of the mission of the Ohio Chapter.

ELIGIBLE APPLICANTS

To be eligible to apply for funds from the American Academy of Matrimonial Lawyers Ohio Chapter, an applicant must:

1. Be a U.S.-based organization that has received a determination letter (which is in effect during the application process) from the Internal Revenue Service that it qualifies as an exempt organization under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code; and/or
2. Be able to demonstrate that the proposed project for which the funds will be used qualifies as an activity in which a Section 501 (c)(3) organization is permitted to engage; and

3. Be an individual or Individuals who provide research and/or education involving issues pertinent to family law.

AAML OHIO CHAPTER FUNDING POLICIES GUIDELINES

Grant awards will not be made to:

1. Organizations whose primary mission is lobbying for or dissemination of religious or political views;
2. Political organizations or campaigns;
3. Endowment funds or campaigns;
4. Scholarship funds or campaigns; or
5. Lawyers or law firms in private practice.

As a general rule, the Ohio Chapter will give priority to projects which are either initiated and completed within the grant year or receive funding from other sources after the Ohio Chapter provides assistance for initial start-up funds. Also, a grant awarded to an approved applicant will ordinarily not exceed $5,000 and not exceed a 12-month budget period.

The grant award monies ordinarily will be disbursed to an approved applicant in the calendar year in which the application is submitted.

APPLICATION SUBMISSION REQUIREMENTS

The completed application, signed by the properly authorized officials of the applicant, and accompanied by the required documents listed below, must be received by the American Academy of Matrimonial Lawyers Ohio Chapter either by mail or email no later than July 31st of the year in which the application is submitted. If submitting by email, the application, formatted as a PDF file, with the required documents should be emailed to cmurway@taftlaw.com.

The applicant's proposal MUST: (1) respond to all questions set forth in the "Project Narrative"; and (2) contain all data required by the application, or it may be deemed incomplete and ineligible for consideration. The applicant is encouraged to provide as much detail as appropriate to assist the Ohio Chapter in making its grant award decisions.

Documents which must be included in the application are:

1. Signed grant application face-sheet;
2. Completed project narrative sheets;
3. Proposed project budget sheet; and
4. Tax status letter and Federal Tax I.D. number.
